

RECOMMENDATION LETTER

It gives me great pleasure in writing this letter of recommendation for Mr Ganji Sai Venkata Bhimeswararao, who is applying for the Master's program at your esteemed university. I have had the pleasure of observing his professional development over the past two years, and I can state with confidence that he is a motivated and responsible person with a high degree of integrity. As such, I expect that he will be a very positive addition to your institution.

Bhimeswararao has been associated with our esteemed organization since 2020. We undertook Project enterprise sales compensation system; we developed our project as Enterprise live streaming batch application which can process 2TB flat files. In these 3 years, Sai Venkata Bhimeswararao has done various things; migrated monolithic code base to micro services, executed microservice with Complex REST API; Written Rules in SAP callidus cloud for Commission Calculation; delivered business finalizations consistently flawlessly on schedule. Utilizing the platform to create a proof of concepts (POCs) of different systems and use cases for microservices Also, he upheld numerous deployments. He has done all-around well done extra time for the fruition of user stories. Created Maven builds to build and deploy microservices to internal enterprise Docker registry

A believer in the dissemination of knowledge and skill sharing, he educates or teaches team members anything new and relevant that he has learned or come across. This just highlights his dedication toward the progress of the team as a whole above himself. He has a very good understanding of the different viewpoints involved, maintains a healthy balance of opinions in the team, and sticks to the facts and issues. Bhimeswararao is a people person and he established a great rapport with not just his team members but with other colleagues across the organization. He is indeed one of the most respected and liked team members as he goes out of the way to lend a helping hand. He sees challenges as opportunities and does not look for excuses.

He is a take-charge person when a solution is needed. Able to analyze the business need and formulate creative design and technical approaches in both individual and team meetings. His excellent communication skills while interacting both with external clients and his colleagues, are a reflection of his positive attitude. His positive energy and enthusiasm toward his work are inspiring as he walks the extra mile to learn new skills and work while helping his colleagues when they need him the most. There have been various critical scenarios where he has performed brilliantly with his leadership skills and the ability to manoeuvre through tight timelines.

I have found him to be a reliable, hardworking and dedicated member of my team. Hence, I strongly recommend his application to your esteemed university, which would help him to improve his knowledge and realize his dreams.

I wish very best of luck!

Thanks,
